

Noelle Price, DPT

Noelle graduated with her Doctorate of Physical Therapy from the College of Saint Mary in Omaha, Nebraska. She also received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Health and Human Performance from the University of Montana.

Noelle strives to provide compassionate and holistic care to each and every patient while focusing on evidence based approaches. She is passionate about helping patients return to doing what they love, whether it be getting back on the football field or spending time with active grandchildren. Professional interests additionally include using holistic viewpoints to improve overall health and wellness and implementing functional strength and conditioning interventions as appropriate.

Outside the clinic, Noelle enjoys hunting and fly fishing with her husband, as well as strength training and working toward new fitness goals.
